CLASSES

Friday, Oct. 5, 2-5 PM Class Time

*Star Candle Mat and Decorative Jar with Dorothy Francke...$10---

This adorable candleholder and mat are a perfect way to start camp. The fabric star pieces for the mat have been pre-cut for you. Backing and fabric are also included in your kit. A variety of fabrics await your choice.

Dorothy says all you need to do is sew. Please bring your basic sewing kit and sewing machine for this class.

*Clay Pot Lighthouse with Debi Stoppkotte...$15--- Your garden or deck will be gorgeous with this clay pot lighthouse. It even has a solar light right on top. This craft will take 3 class time slots to complete, as you will need to allow time for glue and paint to dry before adding the decorations. Class times will be devoted to: 1. glue pots together, 2. paint them with base coat, 3. decorate them and add light. Debi says she will be at available the entire 3 sessions for your work. Brushes, paint and the light will be supplied but you MUST provide the clay pots in sizes of: 10", 8", 6", 4", and a 4" tray. Note: Because you will not use the entire class time allowed, you may be able to sign up for another class if that teacher is agreeable.

*Crocheted Neck Scarf with Mary Lou Simmons...$8--- Mary Lou says even a giraffe could use a neck scarf and she is here to help you create one for yourself. This daisy design scarf is made by chaining a base row and using single crochet and half-double crochet in this project. There are many choices of beautiful yarn available for this project. Mary Lou is an expert at crochet and you will leave her class with a lovely fashion statement. Please bring a size H or I crochet hook.

Assorted Projects with Kate Schmitgall...$ varies---Stop by Kate's tables and pick up an adorable craft to make at camp this year. She will have many items available for you to check out. Just work on these projects as your time allows. You are sure to find just the right thing in her assortment of goodies.

"Blue Spruce" with Bonnie Smith...$10---Imagine a crystal clear winter night with pine trees all aglow in moonlight. Bonnie has for you a cobalt blue bottle on which you will use specialized paint in silver and gold to create a single or group of blue spruce trees and then decorate the bottle with rhinestones and a collar of glittery 'diamonds'. Add to that the glow of 20 tiny little lights inside the bottle that sparkle like stars and you will have a show-stopping centerpiece for the whole season. No supplies are needed for this class.

Paper Towel Roll Snowflakes with Mary Lou Younger...$1---Recycle those paper towel rolls into wonderful snowflakes ready to grace your home for the winter months. Mary Lou will take you through this creative craft quickly. Come have winter fun. Please bring your glue gun and a small cutter to Mary Lou's class.

Saturday, Oct. 6, 9:30-11:30 A.M. Class Time

Fold and Stitch Coasters with Alice Hunt...2 for $5---What a fun technique Alice has for you to make two coasters in this sewing class. She has brought fabrics in seasonal designs. Make an additional set and use it for a gift. Alice says you will need your basic sewing kit and your sewing machine.

Alcohol Ink Pendant and Hot Tile with Joan McEachern...$12---Learn a wonderful new way to create with alcohol and ink on this tile and then make a pendant too. Joan will have beads available for you to add to your jewelry if you choose. She has all the talent to be sure you are successful. You will need to bring basic painting supplies and paper towels to this class.

Fabric Star with Kate Schmitgall...$10---Your home will take on a new glow at Christmas when Kate helps you make this lovely 18" Christmas star with an assortment of fabrics. It will have a crisp stiff base. Come learn how to either hand sew or machine sew this wonderful creation. Kate suggests you bring a basic sewing kit and a machine if you choose not to hand stitch.

Frosty The Snowman with Karen Maloney...$5---How many of you remember being young and so excited seeing the first snowflakes of the season knowing time has arrived to build a snowman. Frosty is made from a clay pot and proudly holds a candy cane. He will not melt but will welcome all who come into your home all season long. Karen says Fab Tack Glue is a MUST for her class. Please bring scissors.

Clay Pot Lighthouse with Debi Stoppkotte...con't---Debi will be available the entire class time to help you with step #2 on your clay pot lighthouse. Just stop by when time permits so you can paint your clay pots.

Saturday, Oct .6, 2-5 P.M. Class Time

Kitchen Windows Quilt Square with Alice Hunt...$10---An easy quilt square is what you will learn from this class that Alice is presenting. Learn this “all sewing machine technique” and take home that knowledge to make more. Alice asks you to bring a 1-yard fabric length of white or a background fabric. She will provide all the rest. Please bring a basic sewing kit, your machine and thread to Alice’s class.

Holiday Wreath with Nancy Wilken...$13---Nancy has planned ahead to be sure you finish her class. She has pre-cut the fabric and 9 of the 14 flowers on this wreath are done for you! You will decorate the wreath with fabric flowers, buttons and snowflakes. Nancy is providing all the fabric for you. She asks you to bring white thread, needle, scissors, glue gun and 8-10 glue sticks.

Mystery Class #1 with Bonnie Smith...$7---The adventures of our Mystery Classes continue with a delightful fun box ready to be opened to reveal what mystery creation awaits you. No clues...no questions...just an exciting time for those who like to take chances on fun. Glue guns and stix.

Quilted “I Love You” Centerpiece with Kate Schmitgall...$45---This 25” centerpiece is done in pink with hearts. Later use this pattern that you learn to make a full sized quilt in themes and fabrics that YOU love. Kate will have all you need for this lovely square but asks you to bring your machine and basic sewing kit to her class.

Mom’s Rick Rack Apron Potholders with Kim Geddes...$10---You will make not one but two of these cute potholders in Kim’s class. They are almost too pretty to use! Various cotton fabrics from the ‘30’s or old-fashioned prints will be used. Fun for gifts or yourself. Joining in on this class will certainly make you smile. Please bring a sewing machine, basic sewing kit and thread in recommended colors of white, yellow, teal and lilac.

Saturday, Oct 6, 7:30-9:30 P.M. Class Time

Candy Striped Christmas with Karen Maloney...$5---This unique class is two table decorations rolled into one! Karen has created this Christmas decoration from a clay pot and tray which can hold a candle or poinsettia stem. The pot fits in a wreath adorned with mini packages, candy cane and other ornaments. The wreath sits on a clear plastic plate ready to be placed on your holiday table. Adorable. Karen says Fab Tac glue is a MUST for her class! Please bring scissors.

"Wild Thing" with Bonnie Smith...$10---Let the wind blow through the seedpods on this dandelion that you will paint on a frosted bottle. Add rhinestones to the "Wild Thing" and finish by adding a sparkly stem to the top and a sparkling bow to the neck of the bottle. A string of 10 decorative lights inside the bottle will give the essence of lightning bugs come to visit. Glitz and glamour in a 'wild' way. Bonnie will bring all you need to be successful in her class.

Phone Rest with Kate Schmitgall...$4---Need a way to see your phone while you are involved in another task? Kate has a grand way to solve that! She has the latest idea and invites you to come to her class and create. You will need a sewing machine for this class.
